

SINGULAR POSSESSIVE NOUNS

Bubble in "correct" if the sentence is correct. Bubble in "not correct" if the sentence is not correct. Circle the person or thing who owns the noun and the noun itself. The first one is completed for you.

The boy's shoes are red.

correct

not
correct

George's house is big.

correct

not
correct

I like the boys shirt.

correct

not
correct

The girl's bicycle is blue.

correct

not
correct

Remember: A singular
possessive noun has an apostrophe and an "s."

